An impressive contribution to an already desirable street address, the nature of the tri-level townhouse concept here expresses an exceptionally alluring approach to a most impressive lifestyle. Defined by the beauty of sharp, designer lines and angles, the sense of style is enhanced remarkably by the lofty height and light of the lounge where sky windows illuminate a stone kitchen and dining while the living area unfolds luxuriously beyond. Above: a rooftop terrace is revealed amid the surrounding city sights and an immediate urban landscape of rich historic appeal. Two generous bedrooms kept attractively private each enjoy their own ensuite and built-in/walk-in robes while a spacious open study, European laundry below and secure garaging complement the convenience of video intercom and alarm system. So close to the city that nearby trams may hardly be needed, Errol Street and the Queen Victoria Markets each in their own way capture the essence of a
