Design excellence whilst located in arguably the most desirable location within North Melbourne. The space and style that characterises the home is undeniably impressive, arranged as it is over three luxurious levels crowned by visually striking living/dining dimensions framing immaculate stone-island kitchen and northerly entertainer's terrace that basks in the light and city sights. The quality of the finishes is apparent especially in the bedrooms, each beautifully appointed built-in-robos, private ensuite and individual split system. The master takes pride of place with instant access to luxurious spa bathroom while, below, formal lounge, securely access from the street, is the perfect retreat or home office. Complemented by heating/cooling and sensationally spacious tandem garage via rear laneway this simply spectacular home impresses as an exemplar of contemporary design. An easy walk to the Queen Victoria Market, moments from Errol Street's
