From its striking tuck-pointed façade with lace ironwork trims, through soaring interiors with open fireplaces and an extended floorplan focussed on modern family living, this four-bedroom, two-bathroom Italianate Victorian provides a remarkable inner-city haven. Majestic bedrooms, master with a grand bay window, are accessed from a wide, leadlight-adorned entrance hall. An impressive lounge with marble fireplace and informal living area flanks a traditional eat-in kitchen, featuring the home's original wood-fired stove. Paved alfresco gardens offer easy outdoor entertaining, while an upstairs retreat presents the versatile living that families crave. Class continues with timber floors,
