

14 Altona Street Kensington VIC

2 1

In a blissfully quiet Kensington neighbourhood moments from the open spaces of JJ Holland Park, this gorgeous Victorian terrace is sure to exceed the highest of expectations with its beautiful blend of period presence and on-trend style. Beyond the eternally attractive Hawthorn-brick facade, discover a welcoming interior showcasing two generous bedrooms (master with WIR, second with BIRs) complemented by a stylish bathroom with quality fittings and frameless shower. Exposed brick walls add character to the versatile open living/meals area and is further enhanced by a sleek stone-bench kitchen complete with Franke sink, DeLonghi 900mm oven/gas cooktop and Bosch dishwasher. Other stand-out features of this period prize include split-system heating and cooling, internal laundry facilities, impressively high ceilings and original solid timber floors, plus a wonderfully private courtyard with northerly aspect and extensive paving
